New and Improved Varieties for 1960

From the many, many new selections we observed this past season in our own and other leading trial gardens, we have chosen the items listed below as the most outstanding new introductions.

These new varieties should be of the greatest importance to you. This is a rapidly changing world, and much of that change is STYLE. Without style change (represented by new models and ideas every year), no business or industry, whether it is cars, home furnishings or PLANTS, can continue to prosper today. Now as never before, with the great mass of people, style change adds the spice and sparkle of life and satisfies a basic human need. It is with these facts in mind that we constantly strive to add the best in new varieties or style changes each year.

Pay particular attention to the All-America Award Winners for 1960. All are outstanding, and we are certain that they will be on all leading plant-growers' lists for many years.

ANTIRRHINUM (Snapdragon)

"Snapdragons," 1954 edition, lists the leading varieties, gives the number of days from sowing to benching and the number of days from benching to blooming for every month of the year. Available upon request.

We are always glad to help our customers select the best varieties for their conditions and invite inquiries from them. When writing, state the season you want the Snaps to bloom and when you can bench them. We will gladly send suggestions.

"SNAPS" for Greenhouse Forcing Expected Blooming Periods

All blooming periods marked below are based on pinched plants grown on raised benches at 50° F. nights. In order to better describe the many varieties listed, we have divided them into five groups: E, early varieties that flower by Dec. 15; M, mid-season (often called winter-blooming) varieties that bloom from Dec. 15 to Jan. 15; L, those blooming after Jan. 15; S, spring bloomers that are very late and should be planted to follow chrysanthemums at the earliest; and HW, hot-weather varieties for June, July, August and September flowering only.

We recommend the following varieties for greenhouse forcing from late May to early October. Use the F Hybrid varieties for May, June, September, October and November periods. Use the Open-Pollinated varieties (Rockwood) for July, August and early September crops.

WHITE—Crystal White, June Bride, Potomac White, Virginia, Rockwood White No. 7, White Skies.

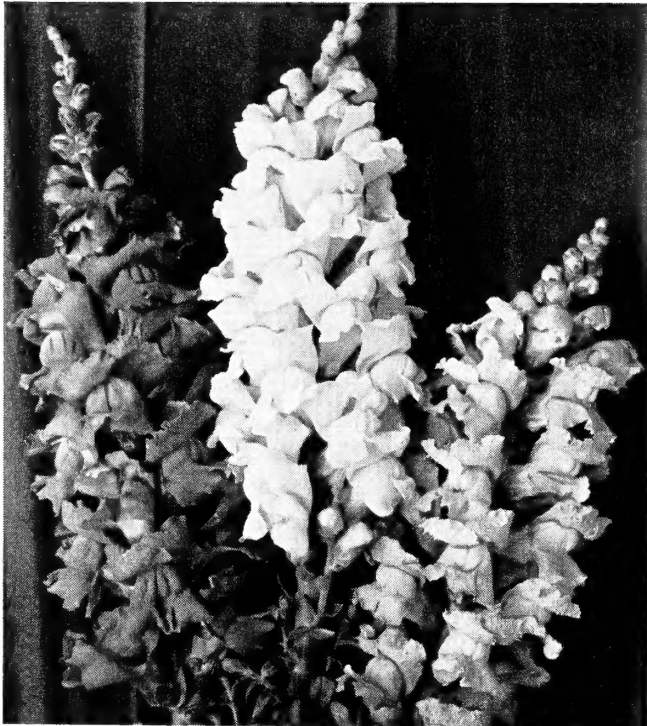

PINK—Florida, Potomac Pink, Rockwood Summer Pink No. 1 and No. 2, Summer Jewel.

YELLOW—Dark Star, Rockwood Summer Yellow, Potomac Yellow, Sunshine, Rockwood Yellow No. 11.

LAVENDER—Arizona, Rockwood's Lavender-Rose, Summer Orchid.

RED—Navajo.

New Rocket Series

All-America Award Winners for 1960

The most spectacular award-winning flowers in a long time. The Rocket Series are the first F₁ hybrids purposely bred for garden use and hot-weather tolerance. The long heavy spikes on very heavy stems, with close-spaced florets, make this series outstanding performers everywhere. We predict these new Snaps will rapidly replace all other garden types in the same manner that the F₁ Hybrid Petunias have replaced the old open-pollinated class. Sow early February. Transplant and pinch when 2½ in. tall; set out in garden early.

Bronze Rocket. Autumn-gold suffused pink.

Golden Rocket. Beautiful deep golden yellow.

Orchid Rocket. Lovely orchid-pink.

ASTERS

14,850 S; 65° to 75° F.; 1 to 2 weeks; for spring sales sow 6 weeks before selling date

FORCING ASTERS: Asters form flower buds when axis elongation occurs. This does not occur under daylight periods less than 15 hours, unless the temperature is above 70°. Short days prevent axis elongation, but speed up bud development. The resulting flower is smaller and on a shorter stem.

ADDITIONAL LIGHTING SCHEDULE: 40-watt bulbs, 6 ft. apart and 2 ft. above the plant tops, give sufficient light for this crop. Give 3 hours additional lighting during the months of August, September, October and March. Give 4 hours additional lighting during November and February, and 5 hours additional lighting during December and January. We recommend lights set to come on at 10:00 P.M. Start lights on seed flats as soon as leaves appear and continue lights until first flowers show color.

Pot seedlings as soon as large enough. We highly recommend Jiffy Pots for this. Space 8 x 8 in. in the bench. Don't pinch.

We cannot recommend forcing cut-flower types from November to mid-March.

For forcing in the greenhouse and for cloth house culture we recommend the New Ball varieties and new Duchesse; next in desirability are American Branching or The Royals.

We offer only Bodger's Wilt-resistant Strains, which have proved very satisfactory to the trade.

Dwarf Queen. Early flowering; 10 in. high. Wilt-resistant, dwarf base-branching plants with large double flowers freely produced. Will make ideal pot plants. We suggest placing three plants in a 5 or 6-in. pot or single plants in a 3½ or 4-in. pot. Do not mix colors in a pot, for each color blooms at a different time. To bloom in pots follow lighting schedule given above.

Sown Aug. 1, will bloom Dec. 13
Aug. 20, will bloom Jan. 10
Sept. 10, will bloom Feb. 10
Oct. 1, will bloom Mar. 20
Oct. 19, will bloom Apr. 18

For sowing at times other than above dates, follow above schedule given for forcing cut-flower Asters. Prick off to 2¼-in. pots about three to four weeks after sowing. The final shift to blooming-size pots is made about six weeks after transplanting.

Culture For Forcing Asters

For cut-flower use either in the greenhouse or outside, the new F₁ Hybrids, Duchesse and Ball or Giant Incurved are best. To produce large bloom size, it is necessary to remove the lower branches and thus limit the number of flowers per plant to five or six. Lateral stems will produce better quality if disbudded to one flower per stem.

For greenhouse cut flowers, try something good, something different. The Bouquet types perform exceptionally well and cut blooms last indefinitely. For home-garden sales, the American Branching or Royals are most popular; however, the new Bouquet types are close to them in popularity.

The Cregos are the ever-popular shaggy types. Early Giants are the same type bloom but earlier, while the Super Giants have the largest blooms with long stiff stems and bloom about 10 days later than the Cregos.

BEMIS TEKPAKS

PLANT-PAKS New, Improved Rigid Formulation—Increased Drainage

These "Paks" save the time consumed in digging and wrapping plants and help you place a far better plant in your customers' hands. Now greatly improved with a more rigid formulation for the entire line, which will give it much longer life on the grower's benches. The number of drainage holes has been increased to insure more positive drainage. The cost saving of shallow containers is a myth. Growers are rapidly finding that cost differentials are overcome by increased costs of labor and materials (watering and fertilizing). The swing is definitely to 3-in.-depth containers.

Featherweight. Lighter to handle, thus reducing shipping costs. "Paks" nest together and reduce storage space to a minimum.

Eye-Appealing. They are neat and attractive when used in any display.

Strong and Durable. Made of molded cellulose, they are resilient; no cracking or breaking. Contain no materials toxic to plants. Will keep their shape and not rot for six months.

Direct Planting. Plant direct, thus saving time and labor. Ready to merchandise.

Waterproof, Yet Porous. Moisture is retained in the soil and healthy root structure is encouraged.

Sizes to Suit Any Grower. They come in many sizes. Find the correct package for your market.

BIRD GROWTH-STIMULATING PLANT BANDS

VITA-BAND D contains root growth until grower chooses to let root through Band. Only quick, slight pressure is needed to crack Band. Do not remove Vita-Band "D" when transplanting. Band disintegrates in the soil, permitting free growth of roots from time of transplant. Nutrient-treated with quickly available plant food.

VITA-BAND 10 for short growing periods.

Will usually contain root growth up to approximately 8 to 10 weeks. Nutrient-treated with quickly available plant food... your judgment determines need for additional feeding. Vita-Band 10 is identical to Vita-Band "D" except Vita-Band 10 is removed at time of transplant. Vita-Band "D" is not.

BLACK MAGIC PAPER MULCH RIVALS PLASTIC

For outdoor garden use, ideal for Geranium stock beds, Carnations, Glads and all other flower and vegetable crops. Tried extensively this past season in our own trial gardens, this new mulch paper eliminated cultivation and just a small amount of hand weeding was necessary. The paper we are now offering has been greatly improved for 1960.

Mulch paper contains a fungicide, Cunilate, which prevents deterioration. It contains no materials toxic to plants. To guard against light transmission and the weed growth that goes with it, the paper is dyed with carbon black.

The rolls are 40 in. wide and will contain 2250 linear feet of paper or 7500 sq. ft. Each roll would weigh 100 lbs. Based on the recommendation of two-thirds coverage of the area, it would require 4 rolls to properly mulch 1 acre. Sample sent on request.

Paper mulch will give the following benefits:

Controls weeds, eliminates much cultivation and hand hoeing.

Regulates the moisture supply in the soil under the plants.

Reduces loss from disease.

Regulates the soil temperature.

Keeps soil in good physical condition by preventing the deterioration normally caused by hard rains and by movement of cultivating equipment.

Prevents leaching of nutrients from soil.

Sold in full rolls of 100 lbs. each only. Price per roll, F.O.B. Smethport, Penna., or Wisconsin: 1 roll $31.00 per roll; 4 rolls (will cover 1 acre) @ $29.75 per roll; 5 to 25 rolls @ $29.00 per roll; 25 to 50 rolls @ $27.00 per roll.

Please write for prices on larger quantities.
